

THE NEW PLAYS

"Pom-Pom," With Mitzi Hajos, Is Delightfully "Different."

BY CHARLES DARNTON

YOU may well take off your shako, in these military times, to "Pom-Pom," for you will find at the Cohan Theatre the most original and amusing musical comedy of the season, and with it clever little Mitzi Hajos, who plays a boy so capably that she has every reason but one to quarrel with her parents.

"Pom-Pom" shares with "The Princess Fair" the musical comedy honors of the year—put this in your hat! To call this form of entertainment comic opera is a mistake that managers often make out of compliment to their vanity. You may be satisfied to know that "Pom-Pom" is delightfully "different." It is a crook play, if you please, set to music. A little prima donna who is to play a pickpocket at a theatre in Nice leaves her jewels in her dressing-room, puts on boys' clothes in which she is to act her part, and then finds herself dragged off to prison with real thieves who have made their way into the theatre in answer to an advertisement for "extras" who look like crooks.

Old as the crook play is, here you have a musical piece with a new idea to give it freshness and interest. The book and lyrics by Anne Caldwell are exceptionally clever, the music by Hugo Felix is always enlivening and sometimes charming, and by way of a last touch the dangerously industrious Joseph Urban has painted scenery in harmony with everything except the remark of the burglar-in-chief about seeing America first. Proof that George Marion has staged the piece with his old skill is to be found in the opening scene, with coryphees in fluffy white tarlatan skirts posed against a background of susceptible admirers bearing gifts of flowers. At once you have the sense of light entertainment out of the ordinary and produced by an artistic hand.

With her square shoulders and her long arms, Miss Hajos is no much like a boy that, happily, her return to skirts is not accomplished until nearly the end of the performance. She seems to be doing a perfectly natural thing when she pulls up the dress that covers her "disguise" and thrusts her hands defiantly into the pockets of her trousers. She is little, but oh—Mitzi! If she ever comes to be really impolite she may throw her cap at Emma Trentini, for as a boy she puts the more obvious little Italian singer quite out of the running.

Vocally, Miss Hajos is particularly charming when she yodels "In the Dark," so charming indeed that anyone with an ear for music watches her escape over the prison wall with regret. This number suits her down to the ground, so to speak, and if her other songs are less distinctive she sings them very well. She is funny in an Apache dance and again cleverly amusing when she takes as her partner a dancing doll in the person of "The Love, who, I'm sorry to say, knocked her head against the wall so violently as she was dancing off the stage last night that it was difficult to determine whether she or the theatre had been injured.

In her circus "stunts" with "Tom McNaughton," the versatile Mitzi adds a somewhat surprising bit of humorously work to her portion of the entertainment, though I must say that all this, like the "elephant," seems to be dragged in by the tail. Mr. McNaughton, in his grotesque way, helps along the act as a weak-bearded policeman who pretends to be a robber. But it must be said that his song, "I'm Unlucky," is rather sad. While Carl Gustav acts rather awfully, he sings well.

The chief of detectives who stands by Mitzi when circumstances make her feel the need of a good baritone. Edith Day does a neat bit of work as this prima donna's maid, and Thomas Walsh and William Evillie are as pleasant a pair of burglars as you'd care to meet.

Yes, the chorus girls are pretty—within ten minutes after an application of Dandine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair, and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy of first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Dandine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a lock with Dandine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance, an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowledge! Dandine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Dandine—Advt.

almost as pretty as Mr. Felix's music. In every respect, for that matter, "Pom-Pom" is charming. You can't go wrong by going to see it. But, first of all, take out burglar insurance, for Mitzi will surely steal your heart.

PICTURE MAKERS TO EAT.

Funny and Serious Newspaper Artists to Have "All Fried" Dinner.

The men who make the pictures for the papers in this town—the famous comic men, noted illustrators and the young fellows who are on the way to become noted illustrators—more than 200 of them—will have their fourth annual dinner at midnight tomorrow in the Castle Cafe, Seventh Avenue and Twenty-fifth Street. It is going to be an "all fried" dinner—fried chops, fried chicken, fried eggs, fried fish, oyster frills—and even the programme of entertainment will sizzle.

The bill includes such fast entertainment as Albert Whelan, Will Rogers, Ernest Truax and Jack Hazard of the "Very Good Eddie" Company, and Hux-and Boyle. Stuart Blackton of the Vitaphone Company will give a first showing of several moving pictures, and an all-around will come a battle royal between four negroes.

NO FILM OF THIS SCENARIO.

Woman "Movie" Broker Fined for Attacking Cast Director.

Agnes Johnston, thirty years old, a scenario broker of No. 234 West Fifty-second Street, was fined $5 in the Woman's Night Court last night for disorderly conduct in the reception room of the World Film Corporation at No. 130 West Forty-sixth Street.

William A. Shuler, cast director of the corporation, the complainant, told Magistrate Frithman that the petitioner had attacked him when he remonstrated with her for hysterical language in the reception room. Clara Kimball Young, film star, was said to have been in the room at the time of the attack, but Miss Young escaped damage. Mr. Shuler suffered several scratches on his hands.

NEW MAJOR FOR THE 69TH.

Gov. Whitman Appoints Capt. Moynahan to Everett's Place.

Gov. Whitman, upon recommendation of Col. Louis D. Conley, commanding the Sixty-ninth Regiment, N. G. N. Y., has appointed Capt. Timothy J. Moynahan of Company L a Major in the regiment, vice Major John T. Everett, who recently resigned.

The new Major first joined the militia as a private in 1898. He was elected First Lieutenant in the Eighth Regiment in June, 1900, and Captain in 1902. He resigned in 1907 and was next appointed a First Lieutenant in the Ordnance Department in May, 1911, and was elected a Captain in the Sixty-ninth in September, 1911.

He built up Company L to one of the largest companies in the regiment and is known as a very competent officer. Major Moynahan is also instructor at a military college.

That Golden Garter Again Holds Up the Ritter Sock.

ATLANTIC CITY, March 3.—That gold garter once more adorns the calf of Edward P. V. Ritter, President of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Exchange of New York. It was lost on a visit here over Sunday and many beach front workers have been hunting for it since. This morning it was returned to the owner by Henry Jackson, a chair pusher, who had found it in the storeroom of a chair stand. It had dropped from a chair robe when the latter was being put away for the night. Jackson got a reward.

A Single Application Banishes Every Hair

(The Modern Beauty)

Here is how any woman can easily and quickly remove objectionable, hairy growths without possible injury to the skin. Make a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a painless, inexpensive method and, excepting where the growth is unusually thick, a single application is enough. You should, however, be careful to get genuine delatone.—Advt.
